Jolien Van der Veken obtained a Master of Laws, with distinction, from KU Leuven in 2021. During her studies, Jolien focused mainly on property law, and she was a volunteer at the non-profit organization Wetswinkel Leuven Huuradvies (which gave legal advice on tenancies).

She has been a member of the Dutch Brussels Bar since September 2021, and she has joined Monard Law since then. Jolien is part of the property practice group where she advises clients on different aspects of real estate law.
