Wim Sys specializes in company law and dispute resolution.

He obtained a Master of Laws in 2012 (KU Leuven) and started his career as a lawyer as soon as he graduated. He was first admitted to the Leuven Bar and then the Brussels Bar.

Wim has been a member of the commercial and corporate law team at Monard Law since 2022. He assists both international corporations and private individuals in litigation and negotiations. He also advises them on drafting and concluding contracts.

Clients regard him as a very driven, dynamic, proactive, and experienced lawyer with a great deal of common sense, determination, and thorough knowledge of case files. He is someone who seeks the most pragmatic solution for his entrepreneur clients.

Wim is also an active academic. He has authored various legal publications on dispute resolution and was an assistant at the KU Leuven Faculty of Law from 2013 through 2019.
