

Lawyer – Junior Associate

ALIZÉE CORDIE

- Lawyer real estate law and construction law
- Assistant at KU Leuven
- Member of the Bar of Limburg since 2022

+32 (0) 11 43 91 41
alizee.cordie@monardlaw.be
Let's connect on LinkedIn

Alizée Cordie works within Monard Law's property department and specialises in and contracting law and real estate law.

She provides advice on concluding real estate transactions and drafting agreements such as commercial leases and residential leases, buy-sell, usufruct, long lease and superficies, building contracts, architects' agreements, etc., among others. She also assists companies, individuals and public authorities in disputes in court and during negotiations.

Alizée graduated cum laude as Master of Laws at KU Leuven in 2021 and subsequently took the postgraduate course in Tax Law and Tax Practice at the Fiscale Hogeschool in Brussels. She has been a member of the Bar of Limburg since 2022.

As part of the Erasmus programme, Alizée studied for six months at the Université Sophia Antipolis in Nice.

Alizée is a practice assistant at the Research Group on Legal Methodology at KU Leuven.

EXPERIENCE

2021 – Present Assistant at the Research Group on Legal Methodology at KU Leuven

2022 – Present Monard Law

TRAINING

2015 – 2019 Bachelor in Law (bilingual track: Dutch - French), KU Leuven campus Brussels in cooperation with Université Saint-Louis

2019 – 2021 Master in Law, KU Leuven

2019 – 2020 Master in Law, Université Sophia Antipolis Nice

2021 – 2022 Post-graduate Tax Law and Tax Practice, Fiscale Hogeschool

ARTICLES

- De imprevisieer maakt haar intrede in het nieuw verbintenissenrecht: wat is het effect op aannemingsovereenkomsten in het privaat bouwrecht? (2022)
- Beperking indexering woninghuurprijzen (2022)