

THOMAS MALENGREAU

Lawyer – Senior Associate Specialises in

- Banking and Finance
- Commercial Law

+32 (0)2 234 67 10

thomas.malengreau@monardlaw.be

Let's connect on LinkedIn

Thomas Malengreau specialises in insurance and civil liability, contracts, commercial and business law as well as banking and financial law. He advises and defends Belgian and foreign clients on a daily basis. He offers his clients consulting and litigation management services.

Thomas has also been working at the Catholic University of Louvain since 2013, where he was a teaching and research assistant at the Centre for Private Law for six years, before becoming a scientific collaborator from 2019. He has written numerous articles published in prestigious law books and journals, and speaks regularly at conferences.

In September 2013, he became a member of the Brussels Bar and joined buyle legal.

He won the Janson Prize in 2016, which is awarded to the best young pleader of the Brussels Bar.

STUDIES & TRAINING

2013 Master of Law, Université catholique de Louvain (Magna cum laude)

WORK EXPERIENCE

2013 - 2019 Teaching and research assistant, UCLouvain

2019 - present Scientific assistant, UCLouvain