

ARMELLE ZALUZEC

Lawyer - Trainee
+32 (0) 27 76 81 38
armelle.zaluzec@monardlaw.be

Let's connect on LinkedIn

Armelle Zaluzec obtained her Master's degree in international and public law from the Université Libre de Bruxelles in 2023 after completing her bachelor's degree at the Université Catholique de Louvain and a semester in Estonia as part of an Erasmus exchange.

She has already assisted a number of lawyers in international law, aviation law and immigration law during her time at university.

Armelle has been a member of the French Bar in Brussels since November 2023 and has joined the banking and finance department of Monard law joined by Buyle in collaboration with Laurent Cloquet. She deals with international embargoes and specialises in banking and finance law.

STUDIES & TRAINING

From 2021 to 2023 Master in public and international law – Université Libre de Bruxelles

From August 2022 to December 2022 Erasmus + - University of Tartu

From 2016 to 2021 Bachelor of law (European studies minor) – Université Catholique de Louvain

October 2021 HELP programme on asylum and the ECHR – Conseil de l'Europe

From October 2020 to December 2020 Training in international humanitarian law (ACADIHMIE) – Red Cross from Belgium

From September 2019 to December 2019 BEPS (European First Aid Certificate) – Red Cross from Belgium

WORK EXPERIENCE

From July 2023 to August 2023

Summer trainee – Monard law joined by Buyle

From 2019 to 2022

Trainee – Cew&Partners

From October 2022
to December 2022

Researcher –Perelman Center (Smart Law hub – Université Libre de Bruxelles)

From September
2021 to December
2021

Lawyer assistant – Refugee Law Clinic