

Julie Beusaert specialises in environmental law. Among other things, she deals with issues involving environmental law, spatial planning and urban development.

Julie graduated as Master of Laws from Ghent University in 2020 (magna cum laude). After her studies, she worked as an intern at the Danish office of 'Friends of the Earth Europe' in Copenhagen. Today, she is also active within the 'Stop Ecocide Belgium' movement.

Julie joined law firm Stibbe in 2021 and joined Monard Law's public team in 2023. She is associated with the Brussels Bar.

JULIE BEUSAERT

Lawyer – Junior Associate
+32 (0)2 234 67 10
julie.beusaert@monardlaw.be

Let's connect on LinkedIn

STUDIES & TRAINING

2015 – 2018	Bachelors of Laws, Ghent University (distinction)
2019	Erasmus+ exchange, Københavns Universitet (one semester)
2018 – 2020	Masters of Laws, Ghent University (great distinction)

WORK EXPERIENCE

November 2020 – July 2021	Intern at Friends of the Earth Denmark ('NOAH'), green education and climate justice department, Copenhagen
September 2021 – September 2023	Junior associate at Stibbe, Environment & Planning department, Brussels bar
November 2023 - Present	Junior associate at Monard Law, Public law (environmental, urban and spatial planning law), Brussels bar

PUBLICATIONS

December 2023

'Geen persoonlijke vetes voor de milieustakingsrechter' (co author), Journal for Urban Planning, Spatial Planning and Environmental law ('STORM') 2023/4